Dorothy McCain Elenius

Latest American Field Service change student for Albany is Jeanne Boge, who arrived recently from Bremerhaven, Germany. She will reside with her host, Helen Beldon and her family, the William Beldon's of Albany, who have taken their guest on a short get-acquainted vacation in Sonoma. Marianne will enter Albany High School as a senior next month.

Ops on the Joseph DiPrisco-Joseph has been on the city's List every semester at Pacific University. Plus he graduated summa cum laude this year. He also attained Phi Beta Kappa status, and was the winner of the Anthony J. Pietrafesa prize as the outstanding senior English literature.

Joseph will be teaching next year at St. Mary's High School in Berkeley. Congratulations on excellent record.

More congratulations for Albany residents—Mary and Bill Wiley celebrated their 29th wedding anniversary on August 21. They didn't let a little thing like age interfere with their attendance at the Albany Hill IGC public hearing. Consequently, this dedicated couple celebrated at midnight supper following the hearing's 11:30 p.m. adjournment.

Congratulations to Albany Fire Dept. Captain Dick McSheehy and his wife, Helen, who became grandparents for the first time on Aug. 11, when their daughter, Mrs. Michael Holtman, gave birth to a son at Kaiser Hospital in Oakland. Stephen Mathew, who weighed 4 pounds 2 ounces at birth, spent his first week of life in an incubator. The proud grandfather has announced that baby Stephen is growing and progressing nicely.

More congratulations — Susan Thomas Reis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Thomas of 903 Wilson St., Albany, will appear in the annual biographical compilation of Outstanding Young Women of America.

And more Albany grandparsons—Mr. and Mrs. Jim Valente are proudly announcing the arrival of their grandson, Daniel Feagley.

The baby, born to their daughter Karen and her husband Alan, Pinole residents, weighed 8 lbs., 15½ oz., on August 5. Other Karen, a native of Albany, attended Vista, Cornell and Albany High schools.

Albany Schools Opening: Schedule, Site Changes

A number of changes will be in effect when the Albany Schools open for the fall term on Wednesday, Sept. 6. Earthquake safety precautions have prompted the Board of Education to abandon Marin Elementary School as well as a large portion of Cornell Elementary School and to relocate the displaced pupils in all available sound school buildings within the district. This relocation of pupils has resulted not only in a change of location but also changes in time schedule for over half the 2,400 pupils attending the Albany Schools.

Marin Attendance Area
All pupils eligible for kindergarten and grades 1-2-3 from the old Marin School attendance area have been re-assigned to Albany Primary School at 609 Key Route Blvd., in remodeled space on the ground floor of Albany High School. There will be two kindergarten sessions. The first will meet from 8:45 a.m.-11:45 a.m. and the second from 12 noon-3 p.m. All pupils in grades 1-3 will attend school from 8:50 a.m.-1:50 p.m. until rescheduled for afternoon reading instruction.

On the first day of school, all pupils should enter through the ground floor entrance at the south end of the main classroom wing at Albany High School.

Fourth graders formerly assigned to Marin School will attend classes in the East Building.

AHS Dates

Students attending Albany High School beginning September 6 should read the following carefully.

Council Refreezes Hill

Restrictions on building in certain portions of Albany Hill have been extended for another eight months by action of the City Council at their regular meeting, August 28.

Ordinance 72-05, the original freeze, was repassed by a unanimous vote with no discussion by the Council members. Although the ordinance was on the agenda as a Public Hearing no one from the community spoke for or against the proposition.

In another Public Hearing, the rezoning application of Bernard Choden was denied, as recommended by the Planning and Zoning Commission. In a covering letter, Commission President William Johnson stated that the request had been denied because the Commission felt that the zoning already conforms to the Master Plan of Albany.

Councilman Hubert Call said that to grant the appeal would be the same as spot zoning, while Choden contended that the rezoning would re-enforce the intentions of the Master Plan.

In a move to help parking in front of Cornell School, a green zone was established to replace the existing red one.

Resolution No. 72-71 commending the Louis Hagen Post 340, American Legion Baseball Team was passed unanimously, and the Mayor instructed the City Clerk to send a copy of the resolution to the boys, presently in Memphis, Tenn., for the playoff tournament.

In an amendment to the Noise Ordinance, the City Council made it legal for building trades workers to start work in the morning at regular times. The new noise hours are 10 p.m. to 8 a.m. on Monday through Saturday, and 10 p.m. to 10 a.m. on Sunday. Under the former hours, workers were breaking the law by beginning their work day at the usual time.

Three letters concerning the 2500-unit Albany Hill complex were referred to the continued Public Hearing on September 11.

A letter from a Berkeley taxi driver, John Richards, was read commending the Albany Police Department in general, but three members in particular. Richards was the victim of a robbery in Albany and his letter calls Inspector Boyd, Officer Clemens, and an unknown cadet, "three fine members of the Police Department. No city could have a better Police Department than Albany. Your city has a Police Department they can be proud of."

Elizabeth Dalrymple's employment as a temporary typist-clerk in the Police Department was extended (Continued on Page 3)

Comparing Albany to Medieval Europe, Doug Eaton, a Santa Fe Avenue resident in Albany, made an impassioned plea to the City Council concerning a sewer problem that hopefully will prove to be peculiarly his own.

Quite simply, rats from the Albany sewer system have driven Eaton, his wife, 21-month-old son, and pet dog from their home.

It all started with a break in the sewer, in front of his house. A private exterminator and a city crew visited his house, but only succeeded in plugging up the hole that was the rats' escape route. Therefore, the rats burrowed under Eaton's house and have taken possession of his house. As a result, the Eatons are now living with their parents.

Brushing aside assurances from the Mayor that the proper City offices would be informed in the morning, Eaton said, "That's not the problem. The problem is, why are there rats in Albany's sewers?"

Tuesday night's audience were also told that it is not anticipated that many children would be living in the complex, and that it is quite possible it would be a completely "adult community," as this type of project is not conducive to families with small children.

One Albany resident, who said she was "not quite sure" whether she was in favor of the project or not, felt that everyone should have more information before making a decision. She indicated that the project could be very beneficial to the City, but added that such a monumental project should not be considered too quickly.

P & Z commissioners seemed concerned with density factors and traffic. O'Donnell assured them that the traffic study made over a year ago indicated that the present Pierce Street cutoff and the Buchanan interchange could handle traffic generated by 2000 units, and that this amount of units would hardly be completed before five or six years, and that with the advent of BART a great number of people will not be using their cars.

ing would re-enforce the intentions of the Master Plan.

MEMBERS of the Albany Lions Club gathered around Bob Humbert (seated center), co-ordinator of the Vocational Placement Program at the Lions Blind Center in Oakland, as he demonstrated the newly acquired specially made typewriter donated by the Albany Lions. A silver plate attached to the machine bears the inscription, "Presented in the memory of Past District Governor William N. Thomas." Seated on Humbert's right is Albany Lions Club President John McDonald, while on the left is Curt Cross, club member. Standing left to right are Charles G. ## Free Lunch Eligibility

Free lunches will be available for students in the Albany public schools. The following criteria have been established by the State of California for free lunch eligibility:

1. Children from families receiving Aid for Families with Dependent Children, when such aid is the only source of income, shall be eligible for free or reduced price school meals.

2. Children from families receiving food stamps—federally donated food but not receiving public assistance shall be eligible for free or reduced price school meals.

3. Children from families receiving public assistance (Old Age Security, Aid to the Disabled, Aid to the Blind, etc.), when such assistance is the only source of income, shall be eligible for free or reduced price school meals.

4. Children from other families with a monthly gross income from all sources at or below the following levels shall be eligible for free or reduced price school meals:

Family Size	Gross Income
1	..... $204
2	..... 268
3	..... 331
4	..... 394
5	..... 454
6	..... 512
7	..... 564
8	..... 616

Over 8 - $48 for each additional family member.

Families may apply for free lunches at the office where each child attends. Principals will be in charge of the program at each school. Families not satisfied with the principal's decision, in their cases, may file oral or written appeals to Mr. Kenneth Forry, Superintendent of Schools, 904 Talbot Avenue, Albany, California 94706.

The school lunch program will begin on Wednesday, Sept. 6. Hot lunches will be served at Cornell, Vista, High School Primary, and MacGregor. Student lunches will cost 35 cents or $1.75 for a weekly lunch card. Milk may be purchased for sack lunches at 5 cents or $1.00 for a monthly milk card. High School and Middle School students will find the Snack Bar open for their food needs.

Commissioner Bob Luoma, who questioned the fire safety aspect of the project, was told that the developer had conferred with Fire Chief Gerald Browne and had been assured that everything was covered by the code. The developer's representative also informed the Commission that they would continue to work with the Chief on any further suggestions he may have.

At the conclusion of the hearing, the Commission voted unanimously to hold their final decision until September 12 and instructed City Administrator Jim Turner to bring in reports from the Police Chief, Fire Chief and the City Engineer as to their recommendations.

Typewriter Lions' Gift

Albany Lions Club presented a specially made large-print electric typewriter to the Lions Blind Center in Oakland, August 21. The presentation was made in the memory of the late William N. Thomas, a past president of the Albany Club and a past District Governor of Lions District 4-CS.

Al Drozda, a past president of the Albany Lions, and a member of the Blind Center's Board of Directors, said that more than half of all legally blind people have some useful vision. He explained that this typewriter can be used to copy recipes, instructions for appliances, lessons or even entire textbooks.

The typewriter was custom made by Smith Corona Marchant for the Center, and Curtis Cross, Albany's representative on the Lions Central Committee for the Blind, explained that this special electric typewriter writes only six letters to the inch. It has special "Sight-Saving" type and a 13-inch carriage so that it will accommodate large sheets of paper.

Don Chelemados, immediate past president of the Albany Club and now chairman of the Lions Zone, explained that this was a practical memorial to the late William N. Thomas, who died last March. "Bill Thomas was an active citizen and a dedicated Lion. We are sure that he would be pleased by a useful, practical memorial like this typewriter."

Continuing in the spirit of public service and working towards more contributions such as this typewriter, the Lions are presently engaged in two important fund raising events.

An Albany Tradition

Gregg Bachman joined his brothers, Todd, Ken and Mark, as an Eagle Scout at a recent Troop 19 Court of Honor at Northbrae Church. The boys are the sons of Adele and Whitey Bachman.

All four boys made Eagle rank in Troop 19, after each of them attained Webelos in Pack 7 of Cornell School. All are graduates of Cornell School, as is their sister, Alain.

Gregg is a senior at Albany High School, from which his brothers graduated. All five Bachman children were born at Albany Hospital, only one half block from where their mother was born on Evelyn Avenue.

Their proud grandfather, John Jungnickel, was one of the Dads that started Troop 42 of Albany Methodist Church many years ago, where their uncle, John Jungnickel, Jr., attained his Eagle Rank.

Whitey Bachman has been active in Scouting since 1955 when Ken joined Pack 7 at Cornell School. Whitey has served as Cubmaster, Committee Chairman or in some other capacity with the Pack and Troop since that time.

Ken attended the National Jamboree at Colorado Springs, Colo.; Mark attended the Jamboree at Valley Forge in Pennsylvania; and Todd at Farragut, Idaho. Gregg hopes to attend the Jamboree next July.

Each boy feels a debt of gratitude to Pack 7 and Troop 19, and to all the Dads and Moms who make Scouting work.

tended an additional 30 days.

Two communications from the Park and Recreation Commission regarding their Master Plan were read. One asked that the City retain the planner for revisional work on the Plan, for a fee of $6,500. The other stated that it was the intent of the Commission to include acquisition of Albany Hill land in their Master Plan. The planners were retained by a unanimous vote. A motion by Councilman Richard Clark to put the City Council on record in favor of the land acquisition received a vote of three in favor and two abstentions (Councilmen Hein and Call). Councilman Call abstained because of what the City Attorney deemed a conflict of interests since the Councilman owns property on the Hill.

How to light a gas pilot.

You needn't be uneasy about relighting a gas pilot. It's an easy, quick and safe procedure when you follow these simple steps:

Gas Range: Before lighting a pilot on your gas range, be sure all burners are turned off. Check your owner's manual for the location of the pilot and touch a lighted match to the opening. For maximum heat with minimum use of fuel, the pilot and burners should burn with a light blue flame.

Water Heater: The main burner on a modern gas water heater or dryer will not operate if the pilot goes out. To relight a water heater, set the control to "pilot" and follow manufacturer's instructions.

Dryer: Turn dial off and relight pilot.

Never look for a gas leak with a lighted match or candle.

If all your gas pilots are lit and you smell gas, call us immediately and we'll send a serviceman to investigate. If you are unable to light a pilot, we'll help. A plumber, appliance repairman or furnace man should be called if any appliance needs repairs or parts. PG&E

Marin School, 1400 Marin Avenue; demolish main classroom building;

Construct new school facilities on the Cornell School site, the Marin School site and the Albany High School athletic field site;

MEASURE 2

Shall the governing board of the Albany Unified School District of Alameda County be authorized to accept and expend an apportionment in an amount not to exceed One Million Two Hundred Seventy-five Thousand Dollars ($1,275,000) from the State of California and subject to the provisions of Chapter 10 of Division 14 of the Education Code, which amount is subject to repayment as provided by said chapter?

The bonds proposed to be issued under Measure 1 shall be One Million Eight Hundred Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($1,825,000) in aggregate principal amount, shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding 7% per annum payable annually for the first year and semi-annually thereafter, and the number of years the bonds or any series thereof are to run shall not exceed 25 years from the date of said bonds or such series thereof.

If at said election the requisite number of voters cast their ballots in favor of the issuance of the bonds mentioned in Measure 1, the bonds shall be issued and sold in the manner provided by law and the proceeds used for the purposes specified in said Measure 1.

If at said election Measure 1 to initiate the governing board's plan is not approved and authorized, the governing board shall, in accordance with the same or a modified plan, submit proposals to authorize the issuance of bonds or to increase the tax rate not later than five years following the date of said election.

By order of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Alameda, at the request of the governing board of said district and of the County Superintendent of Schools of Alameda County, said bonds election and said apportionment authorization election have been consolidated with the general election to be held on November

Within the territory affected by said consolidation, to wit, said Albany Unified School District, the election precincts, polling places, voting booths and officers shall, in every case, be the same as those established and provided for said general election by the Board of Supervisors of Alameda County. There shall be only one set of election officers in each precinct. The form or forms of ballots to be used at said elections shall be in the form or forms provided by the Registrar of Voters of Alameda County for use at said general election, on each of which shall be set forth the measures hereby submitted to the voters of said district. The elections shall be held in all respects as if there were only one election and the Board of Supervisors of Alameda County be hereby authorized to and will canvass or cause to be canvassed the returns of said school district election at the time and in the manner required by law.

Faria-Lennert Ceremony

Julye Anne Faria, daughter of Mrs. Patricia George and Randall H. Faria, married Andrew Lennert in an afternoon ceremony at Grace Lutheran Church, Kensington, on July 2, 1972. Given in marriage by her father, Julye chose a long white nylon over satin dress, with lace cuffs, high neck, and wore a shoulder length veil of white nylon lace. Her bouquet consisted of white carnations, centered with single white orchid.

Julye's attendants were: Brenda Coyne, maid of honor; Myne Faria (Julye's oldest sister), Cindy Lennert (Andrew's sister), and Stacy Alessandro as bridesmaids. The attendants wore identical dresses of green and blue nylon print, over blue satin, long sleeved, with sweetheart necklines. The dresses were made by the attendants. The girls carried old fashioned bouquets of white and pink carnations and lilies, and fairies breadth. Andrew is the son of Mrs. Barbara Reese of Pinole and the late William Lennert. He was attended by Bruce Corey, best man; and Mrs. Westergaard, Harold Man and Mike Hamilton served as ushers. The bride's mother wore a royal blue, princess style dress in

MDAA's Charity Ball

"Your Help is Their Hope" was the theme of the Muscular Dystrophy meeting of benefit advisors and sponsors to plan their upcoming Charity Ball, Thursday, Aug. 31.

The Charity Ball will be held to aid Jerry Lewis and the Muscular Dystrophy Telethon. The event is being sponsored by Mrs. Glenda Nelson and the Arthur Murray Studio's of Northern California.

Last year the Arthur Murray Studios raised over $40,000 during the telethon, this year their goal is $100,000.

The Ball will be held in the Regency Room of the Hotel Learning—which has been donated for the eve, beginning at 8 p.m. Celebrity guests, exhibition dancing and the Jimmy Blass 11-piece orchestra (which has been donated by the Musicians Union of San Francisco) will be the highlights of the Muscular Dystrophy Ball. Benefit advisor for the ball is Mr. Ralph Jensen, Albany Chief of Police. Members of the sponsoring committee are: Mr. Louis Figone, East Bay Sanitary; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jelinek of Pinole; Mrs. Dorothy Faust, president of the Vista Business and Professional Women's Club; Elaine Moran, chairwoman of the Fremont unit of MDA; Mrs. Lucille Kelley of San Leandro; Mrs. Ardit McCarthy of Castro Valley; and Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Abrott of Hayward.

Donations can be made to any of the sponsors or at your local Arthur Murray Studio. All proceeds will be turned over to the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

Blank Chairs Bond Voters

Jerome Blank, Albany Realtor and former City Councilman, was named chairman of the Bond Election Committee at that group's meeting last Wednesday evening.

Blank, virtually a life-long resident of Albany, not only attended Albany schools himself, but has had two children go through Albany's system as well. In commenting upon the importance of this election, Blank said, "The future of Albany is at stake. Our city depends upon continued quality education."

Assisting with the Committee as co-chairmen will be Dorothy Brown and Jean Tenret, while Bruce Davis will serve as treasurer. A concerted precinct campaign is planned under the direction of Rick Sherman and Sally Beckett. Hopefully, by the time the campaign is in full gear, there will be a Bond Election worker on every block in the city.

Superintendent of Schools Kenneth Forry attended the meeting and commented on the progress thus far. "It is evident that there are a large number of dedicated people who are determined to continue quality education in Albany Schools," he said. Forry stressed the importance of the Bond Issue in getting our children off of double sessions.

Anyone wishing to help with the campaign in any way at all is urged to come to the next Committee meeting tonight, August 30, at 7:30 o'clock in the Cornell cafeteria. Future meetings will also be held on Wednesdays at that same time and location.

Laura Takacs Wed

Laura Christine Takacs and Robert Mitchell Collins were joined in marriage on Saturday, July 8, at St. Mary Magdalen Church in Berkeley. Reverend Patrick J. Carroll, S.J., of the University of Santa Clara officiated at the wedding ceremony, which had been composed by the bride and groom. A reception was held afterwards at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Takacs of Berkeley. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Michael Collins of Hillsborough.

The bride wore a long dress of white voile accented by insets of embroidery in the front of the dress and in the full sleeves. The empire waist, jewel necklace, cuffs, and hem were trimmed with delicate lace and white satin ribbon. Laura's cathedral length veil was trimmed with the same lace as her gown, and fell from a small, open-work lace cap. Laura carried a nosegay of white roses, stephanotis, and cymbidium orchids, with small white rosebuds tied in the white streamers.

Vivian Dauve of San Diego was her sister's matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Sharon Collins, the groom's sister of San Francisco, Susan Takeshita of San Francisco, and Ann Louise Ford of Los Angeles. The bridesmaids wore long voile dresses in shades of yellow, orchid, green and white. The dresses were trimmed in white linen at the neck, empire waist, and cuffs. The bridal attendants carried nosegays of white and yellow elegances with white streamers.

Ed Seymour of Phoenix, Arizona, was Bob's best man. The head usher was the groom's brother, Richard M. Collins, Jr., of Concord. The ushers were Bernard Hector of San Jose and Fred Gonzales of San Bruno.

Bob graduated in June with honors, receiving a bachelor's degree in psychology from the University of Santa Clara. Laura will complete her nurse's training this May at the University of San Francisco.

The bride and groom spent their honeymoon at Lake Tahoe and are now residing in Oakland.

Notes from the Senior Center

This past Wednesday, the Albany Senior Center members were delighted with a folk dance demonstration by Virginia Behn and Paul Haller, two very talented people. They did authentic dances of Yugoslavia, Greece, Israel and Germany and then, persuaded the audience to try dancing, too. It was most enjoyable. If there are enough of you out there who are interested, we could arrange a folk dancing class here at the Center.

Because the Center will be closed on Labor Day, our Ogleby Party will be on Monday, Sept. 11. Dessert and coffee will be served at 11:30 a.m. Nice prizes!

On Wednesday, Sept. 13, the fall semester starts for our two Adult School classes. Creative Retirement with Mrs. Douglas Henderson at 10:30 a.m. and World Affairs with Leo Vuasalo at 12:30 p.m. Bring your lunch, coffee will be served at 12 noon. No fee for classes.

The Craft and Art-Needlework Group meets on Tuesdays at 10 a.m. On Thursdays, we have Bingo, Singing and Cards. Friday is Community Service day; we will soon be stuffing envelopes with Christmas Seals. The Bridge Group meets on Friday, too. Sunday is Cards, Coffee and Conversation, a most sociable day.

Many of our members have already received their property tax refund checks. Have you?

For information, call Director Beulah Belling, 526-1601.

Weekend Camp

Albany residents planning Labor Day weekend trips may be interested in learning that because of high fire hazard, special fuel regulations have gone into effect at Mt. Diablo State Park in Contra Costa County.

The only allowable fuel in the park will be Presto-type logs, camp stoves burning liquids, and bottled gas.

Wood and briquets cannot be used, the State Dept. of Parks and Recreation said, because wood throws sparks, and some people are in the habit of dumping briquets on the ground before they are completely burned out.

The Dept. also announced that despite rumors, Brannan Island State Recreation Area, located in the Sacramento Delta above Antioch, on the banks of the Sacramento River, is not underwater—in fact, it is the highest and driest point for miles around.

The Dept. noted that the recreation area is about 25 feet higher than nearby areas affected by the recent flood, and is available to boaters, swimmers, campers, fishermen and picnickers.

Brannan Island State Recreation Area, popular with Delta, Bay Area and Valley residents, is located in Sacramento County about four miles above Antioch, and is reachable for Albany residents via Highway 160 from Antioch.

Tot School Registration

Registration for the Albany Parent Nursery will take place at the nursery school, 1058 Monroe St., University Village, on Wednesday, Sept. 6, 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. and Sept. 7, 10 to 11 a.m. Information material and medical forms are now being mailed to enrollees.

The two teachers will be making home visits in the week following registration. School will begin Sept. 18.

New to the school this fall will be Mrs. Greta Willson 4-year-old's teacher, who replaces Mrs. Melinda Danziger. Mrs. Danziger recently was appointed to the job of director of Albany's Children's Center.

Mrs. Willson previously taught in a parent cooperative nursery school sponsored by the Alameda Adult School. In addition to an AB in English from the University of California, Mrs. Willson has had extensive post graduate classes in Early Childhood Education at the University of California Extension.

New mothers will be entertained at a luncheon on Sept. 14 at the home of Mrs. Connie Brown, 1821 Yosemite Rd., Berkeley. Assisting at the luncheon will be the new officers of the school, Mrs. Nancy Taussig, president; Mrs. Amalia Fernandez, secretary; Mrs. Laurie Hall and Mrs. Joy Dutton, parent education; Mrs. Elaine Ehm and Mrs. Norma Gomez, membership; Mrs. Betty Dahlke and Mrs. Joey Clark, utility; and directors, Mrs. Ruth Friedman and Mrs. Willson.

The Albany Parent Nursery, which is beginning its ninth year, is operated under the auspices of the Albany Unified School District Adult School. It is open to any child in Albany who has reached the age of at least two years nine months, on Sept. 2. Partial scholarships are available. Children are given many opportunities to explore their environment through art, cooking, science, big and small muscle activities, dramatic play, carpentry, music and games while their parents assist the teacher one day a week and attend a weekly adult school class designed to help them be more effective parents.

Workshops in art, music, cooking, and science will be among the classes given during the first semester.

Anyone wishing further information about the nursery school may contact the membership chairman, Mrs. Ehm (3-year-olds) 525-5075; Mrs. Gomez (4-year-olds) 525-4341; or the Albany Board of Education, 526-6441.

While the two laying hens were awarded the "Most Unusual Pet" prize, Daria Redel's Poll (sometimes called Hungarian Poll) dog was named "Best of the Show."

For this sixth annual Pet Show, Virginia Behn, George Jaekle, and John Whitman served as judges for the show. Mr. Frank Graebner, judge for the past five years, was absent because of illness. The pets and the children missed his kind words.

Editor, the Times:

The time for the general public to speak up in reply to a small but volatile and grasping group. I invite, not only citizens of Albany, but most sincerely people in neighboring cities to speak up also regarding Albany Hill. Not only will the planned complex on the west side of the hill help Albany financially, but it can not be a detriment to enjoyment of the top of the hill.

Further, I question that the hill can ever be more attractive than it is now. Any gardener who has had to deal with eucalyptus trees knows nothing will grow under them. This means that the hill can never be anything but what it is at present—a small, inverted Dust Bowl.

The idea that Federal funds will save us money is fallacious. The tax money for the thousands of such projects across the country all comes out of the taxpayer's pocket. Boise, Little Rock, Tucson, Jersey Shore, Albany and countless cities add up to billions of dollars out of our pockets.

I request the City Council to approve the apartment complex on Pierce Street for the good of Albany.

Sincerely,
JOHN D. DUNCAN
Chairman Albany Traffic and Safety Committee,
1103 Ordway St., Albany

Prior to the building of Golden Gate Fields, a great many Albany residents were against this project, but if we didn't have that tax source we would be in real trouble today. If for some reason the track should shut down or move, Albany would have a very hard time replacing the taxes received from this facility, and any other possible source of taxes for the city should be welcomed.

Do those supporting keeping Albany Hill as a park realize that this proposed development will be self-supporting, while over and above the initial purchase price of the Hill for a park, the policing and maintenance costs would increase each year without any means of support outside of taxes from Albany homeowners.

Have any of these "park supporters" looked at a public park on a Monday morning, after a weekend of young people "doing their thing"? I have, as I work in Berkeley, and know just how much garbage must be hauled away and how much policing is required to try and keep law and order.

As of now, the land in question which Interstate General seeks to develop, is nothing but an eyesore. How a park could be developed on this piece of ugly, steep frontage, suitable only for a mountain goat, is quite improbable.

As to the traffic situation—this is supposed to be a 5-phase project, to be completed in approximately 8 to 10 years. In 5 years, BART service should certainly be in action enough to offset any freeway congestion caused by the completed and occupied units of this complex.

MRS. MARY BECKHUSEN

To the Albany City Council and Citizens of Albany:

It was stated in last week's editorial that Albany is a "city of homes." I would like to comment further by saying Albany would not remain so, if the proposed 2500 unit Albany Hill project is passed by the Albany City Council. The City of Albany would not benefit from a project that will over-tax its highways, social services and municipal facilities without the necessary tax base, leading Albany into the dilemma of other East Bay cities.

Sincerely,
THOMAS J. NENNI
a Citizen of Albany

Editor, the Times:

The following is a copy of a letter which I have forwarded to the Albany City Council:

Gentlemen:
I am writing this letter from the viewpoint of both an Albany citizen and as a police official of this city.

As a citizen I would like to state that in my opinion, the Albany Hill Project would be one of the finest usages made of that piece of property. It seems to me that it accomplishes just about everything that could be wanted. It does not despoil the open space on the hill but does improve the sight value of the excavated area on the flat portion. It provides for a sorely needed increase in our population and creates a greater property value. Both of these assets are extremely desirable from a tax standpoint. The placement of the proposed buildings has been extremely well planned and the buildings themselves from an aesthetic point of view seem to "make" the project. I sincerely hope that you gentlemen see fit to cooperate in any way possible to see that this sorely needed and highly desirable project can become a reality.

As a police official I would like to make a couple of comments. First of all it is highly unlikely that the building of this complex will create any appreciable addition of men to our department. A conversation with Mr. Harry Hollenbeck revealed that the Albany Hill Project will have its own internal security force on a 24 hour basis. From this standpoint I am sure that the coverage will be adequate. Furthermore, because of the types of tenants involved, I feel certain, will create minimum police problem. I further believe that the increase in traffic will not be as great as some people are stating it will be. I believe that with some modifications that Pierce Street will be able to handle all traffic both at the Albany off-on ramp and at Central Avenue. I do not believe that there will be as much traffic in those areas as there is in the 400 block of Evelyn Avenue, which is 30 feet from curb to curb with parking on both sides, created by the El Cerrito Plaza users.

Again I would like to reiterate that both as a citizen and as a police official I give my highest endorsement to the Albany Hill Project.

Very truly yours,
RALPH M. JENSEN
Chief of Police

Editor, the Times:

Once again the City of Albany has reached the crossroad of development. The road to the right could lead to improvement and prosperity while the road in the other direction could lead to the despair of passing up an opportunity that may never be repeated. Certainly Albany's tax structure could be greatly rewarded by the right choice.

The Fire Department has received numerous calls from citizens requesting information regarding the impact on the fire service that might be made by the high-rise buildings in our area. Two concerns seem to be envisioned by the questions:

1. Will the high-rise site, due to its location, necessitate another fire station within the City of Albany?

The answer is no. A trial run to this location proved the response time to be two minutes and 17 seconds while presently the response time to the northeast corner of our city is one and one-half minutes longer.

2. Will the high-rise buildings mean that costly special fire equipment such as aerial ladders, ladder trucks, etc. must be purchased to furnish fire protection to the proposed buildings?

Again the answer is no. Today's firefighting in high-rise buildings has been greatly reduced by built-in automatic fire-protection features. Automatic alarms, fire sprinklers, detection systems, standpipes, etc., are supplemented by rigid building codes insuring extensive fire protection. Fire protection in high-rise buildings must be looked at with the proper perspective resulting in engineering to fit the buildings. I am certain that our department, with the cooperation of the building department, shall present a very rigid fire protection program.

Basically, the seeds for progress have been planted and whether they germinate or not, depends upon public opinion.

Public opinion has always looked both ways—its only problem is choosing the right direction to travel.

GERALD BROWNE

Editor, the Times:

There is no more vital matter for Albany in the November elections than the School Bonds. Albany is a city of homes. Good schools have been a prime factor in the quality and value of our homes. Those of us whose children have grown up in and left the Albany schools—the "PTA Alumni"—will be among the supporters of the bonds because we know the importance of schools.

In the coming election, the School Bonds are competing for the available tax dollars. Parks & Recreation needs money and their General Plan must be meshed with the School Plans. The General Plan for the City of Albany is under attack from ecologists. If the City regresses it will have difficulty supporting any progressive plans. As a further "cheerful" thought, the Watson Amendment will affect the availability of tax money for schools.

The Bond Committee needs leadership—with few volunteers to take on the job. I am venturing a suggestion. Solicit the active assistance of the "PTA Alumni"—those who have weathered many storms and are experienced at coping with conflicting problems. The Senior Citizens—many of whom are retired—are very busy people. But there must be some who can pitch in for two months. Their concern for Albany Schools is genuine. Furthermore most of them are concerned for the value of their homes.

Respectfully,
SAMUEL R. DOWS

Editor, the Times:

The plan for the development of the westerly side of Albany Hill by Interstate General, has many beneficial aspects to the City of Albany. Needless to say, the construction of several high-rise apartment buildings plus the shops that would service the residents of the development, would tremendously broaden the city's tax base. Additional property taxes would far surpass the cost of the city services that would be required by the new residents. This could produce revenue that would assist the home-owners of Albany who are now faced with the necessity of constructing new schools to replace the present earthquake-condemned buildings. New residents bring life and vitality to a city. Many of them will shop in our local businesses and take part in our community life. Added sales tax revenues can help relieve our property tax burden. The buildings would be built on a site which is now bare and bleak and crisscrossed by motorcycle trails and adjacent to a freeway. One can only look at similar developments in other water-oriented areas such as San Diego and the Golden Gateway of San Francisco to see what an improvement such a development makes. We can hope that some of the revenue produced from the new project will help Albany proceed with the Albany Isles waterfront development plan, thereby giving every citizen of Albany access to a water recreational area. It is to be hoped that the City Council and Planning Commission will carefully study the pending application and approve the concept of the plan. The future of Albany could well depend on the proper decision being made.

Editor, the Times:

The following is a letter which I have submitted to the Albany Planning and Zoning Commission, which I believe should be reviewed by all citizens of Albany:

Gentlemen:
I have carefully reviewed the material made available to the public regarding the development of high rise units on the west side of Albany Hill as proposed by Interstate General Corporation. As you know, I have been extremely concerned of the preservation of open space and the general quality of the Albany community. A number of years back, I assisted the City in preparing a plan for the use of its tideland area. I have worked on the Citizens Advisory Committee for new schools and served as chairman of the Alameda Task Force on its Welfare Program for the County. For many years, I was a director of the Chamber of Commerce. I mention these involvements and concerns in hopes of being able to convey to you my concern for the community.

Interstate General Development, Inc.'s plan for 2,500 units, while at first blush appears to be overly ambitious, on closer examination of the detailed reports and the concept, I can only conclude that such a development will not harm El Cerrito, Albany or Richmond, nor will it detract from the environmental quality of the Hill.

There will, obviously, be required improvements in terms of traffic flow, utility improvements, landscaping and public access to the Hill. It will not involve scarring the Hill, nor will it form a visual wall for those in the Berkeley Hills. The alternate plans as presented by Friends of Albany Hill represent an experiment in tortured logic which have confused rather than clarified the requirements for housing that will be required by such accommodations.

The single family homes to the south will in no way be effected in terms of views, traffic flow, or property values.

The prospects of using tax monies to acquire the top of the Hill, which this project could very well provide, deserves very careful attention on the part of the citizens of Albany and deserves their support and endorsement. The plan as proposed must not only be supported by the Planning Commission and City Council, but also receive assistance from the official city staff and the city as a means toward resolving many problems that might not heretofore have been anticipated.

It will take a great deal of effort on the part of the sponsors to do this job and they should be encouraged and assistance provided wherever possible for implementing the concept which has been so creatively conceived. It is obvious that this program will have far reaching implications on other parts of the community. Perhaps the most visible and immediate impact will be toward upgrading the quality of living in the community, the community's identification and its appeal to attract innovative ideas which can be accomplished.

In its present form, this plan is something not to fear, but one which will need careful attention and conscientious direction.

I hope by this letter that you will see fit to encourage further studies toward implementation of this proposal. It appears to be a real project; not a mirage. It has environmental sensitivity and when compared with the absurdity of others, it is not just another project.

Thanking you in advance for allowing me to express my endorsement of this project,

Sincerely yours,
LEON RIMOV

Editor, the Times:

Several business people in Albany have recently had the opportunity of listening to the presentation of the 2500 unit residential complex northwest of Albany Hill by the Interstate Development Corporation.

Without exception they have individually informed the Chamber of Commerce office that they are enthusiastic in their support of this project, and they are most hopeful that the City Council and the Planning and Zoning Commission will put their stamp of approval on this venture.

Surely there can be no practical objection to the building site, as this part of the hill area presents an ugly scar where the rock was removed down to nearly the Pierce Street level some 30 years ago. Then too, the top of the tallest structure will be below the peak of the hill.

Upon approval of this project, the remaining 24 acres of the 36 acre plot will be available to the City of Albany for public recreational development.

Property and sales taxes from this residential complex should be in a general reduction of taxes for the present business and residential areas of Albany.

The developers have surveyed all of the possible impact this development will have in Albany, especially from standpoints of environmental, economic and gradual growth of the community.

The Chamber of Commerce urges the City Council and Planning & Zoning Commission give their most serious consideration to the approval of project.

Sincerely,
HAROLD G. DOWS
Manager
